RAILROAD EMERGENCY COURSE REGISTRATION

The Saratoga County Office of Emergency Services has partnered with Canadian Pacific Railway to offer first responders in Saratoga County, an educational training opportunity that will focus on response to rail incidents including fire, derailments, and hazardous materials releases. This will be a two-day session course.

CLASSROOM SESSION:

Saturday, September 27th (8:00 a.m-Noon)

Maple Avenue Middle School, 515 Maple Ave, Saratoga Springs

Classroom time will be spent with understanding railroad locations, paperwork, contacts, and sources of assistance.

HANDS-ON SESSION:

Saturday, October 4th (8:00 a.m-Noon) - Location TBD

Field work will include identifying railcars, tank cars, and locomotives and understanding the operation of valves and working with the mock-up valves on the training trailer.

PPE REQUIREMENTS: Safety glasses, boots, rescue gloves, and head protection.

Full bunker gear is not necessary.
