

The Saratoga Infant/Toddler Mental Health Task Force Presents

Sarah Gould-Houde, M.S.Ed.

Regional Infant Toddler Specialist
NYS Early Learning Credentialed Trainer
The Capital District Child Care Council

MANAGING YOUR CHILD'S BEHAVIOR AND UNDERSTANDING THEIR TEMPERAMENT:
GETTING THROUGH THOSE TOUGH TIMES AT HOME. Sarah Gould-Houde will address the topic of temperament and behaviors and how parents and caregivers can successfully manage daily routines.

This workshop is recommended for:

- *Parents
- *Grandparents
- *Child Care Providers
- *Family Support Workers

MAY 12, 2015

8:30AM Registration

9:00-11:30 Presentation Q&A

Location: Saratoga County Building 5, West High Street, Ballston Spa
Coffee, water and light refreshments will be served

No Cost to Parents

Professionals: $15

There will be a provider table to put your brochures/agency information. One spokesperson from each agency will have the opportunity to introduce their agency, services and how to access those services (5 minute maximum) at the end of the workshop from 11:30-12:00.

For questions, please contact Renee Ramsey, 399-4624 or rramsey@chsny.org

To Pre-Register, please fill out and mail this form with your payment made out to CHS.

Name: _____ Email: _____

Phone Number: _____

Agency/Affiliation: _____ Role: _____

____ Yes, a spokesperson from our agency will introduce our agency/services/access

____ I am a Parent/Grandparent/Caregiver

Mail to:

Community Human Services (CHS)

543 Saratoga Rd

Glenville, NY 12302