

Is there DRUG ADDICTION in your life?

We know just how you feel.

It is so painful to watch a loved one struggle with drug addiction. As parents, spouses, siblings, family, friends, neighbors and co-workers, we see first-hand the devastating effects of addiction on a person. What we may not realize is the degree to which the addicted person's behaviors are affecting us.

THE NAR-ANON FAMILY GROUPS are a worldwide fellowship for those affected by someone else's addiction. It is free to attend, and meetings are open to anyone. As a twelve-step program, we offer our help by sharing our experience, strength, and hope with others in the same situation. We've been there. We've walked in your shoes. We've been angry, confused, and terrified. We've worried, snoopied, and obsessed over our addicted loved one's behavior. We've watched our lives spiral out of control. In Nar-anon, we find others who understand what we're going through. We share our successes and failures, joys and sorrows, our dreams and realities. In time, with support from this group of friends, we learn a better way to live while continuing to love the addicted person in our life. Take the first step in getting your life back...come to a meeting. You'll be glad you did.
