MOREAU, CORINTH AND GREENFIELD

WHEREAS, pursuant to Real Property Tax Law 1138(6), a taxing district may cancel a delinquent tax lien if the taxing district determines that there is no practical method to enforce the collection of the delinquent tax lien and that a supplementary proceeding to enforce collection of the tax would not be effective; and

WHEREAS, amounts bid at auction sales of these private road parcels in the past have been significantly less than the unpaid taxes, and in many cases the purchasers of these parcels at auction later default in payment of taxes, causing the parcel to return to tax lien foreclosure; and

Ms. Gaston requested a separate vote on Resolution 90.

Mr. Hammond said that the HVCC project will bring great access to affordable higher education to the residents in Saratoga County. Although located in the Town of Malta, it will be beneficial for all of Saratoga County to have this institution enhance their presence in the County, through establishment of HVCC North. HVCC North presents new opportunities for our young people and those looking to earn new skills in high demand programs in health care, STEM and skilled trades. This will attract workers and keep them local to help meet the needs of our local businesses and community. It will help strengthen the shrinking middle class. It is a smart investment that he believes will have a positive impact on the community for years to come. Mr. Hammond encouraged his colleagues to offer unanimous support of this funding allocation.

Ms. Gaston said that the reason for her request for separate vote was not to do with the content of the resolution itself, or the work of HVCC. It is actually to comment on the process. Ms. Gaston expressed concern regarding the amount of money being spent by a resolution outside of the budget process. Ms. Gaston said that organizations that have requested funding has been asked to go through either the nonprofit program or the regular budget process. Ms. Gaston said that there was a letter on the record indicating that prior to the budget being passed last year, HVCC was advised the amount of funding would likely be available to them. Ms. Gaston said that she hopes the Board in future follows it's own rules and guidelines.

Mr. Barrett commended Dr. Ramsammy and his team for their leadership and doing a great job for their students and the entire region. Mr. Barrett fervently supports this allocation of funds to further educational and training activities here in Saratoga County and look forward to a long and prosperous partnership with HVCC.

On a motion by Mr. Barrett, seconded by Ms. Gaston, Resolution #90 was adopted by a unanimous vote.
