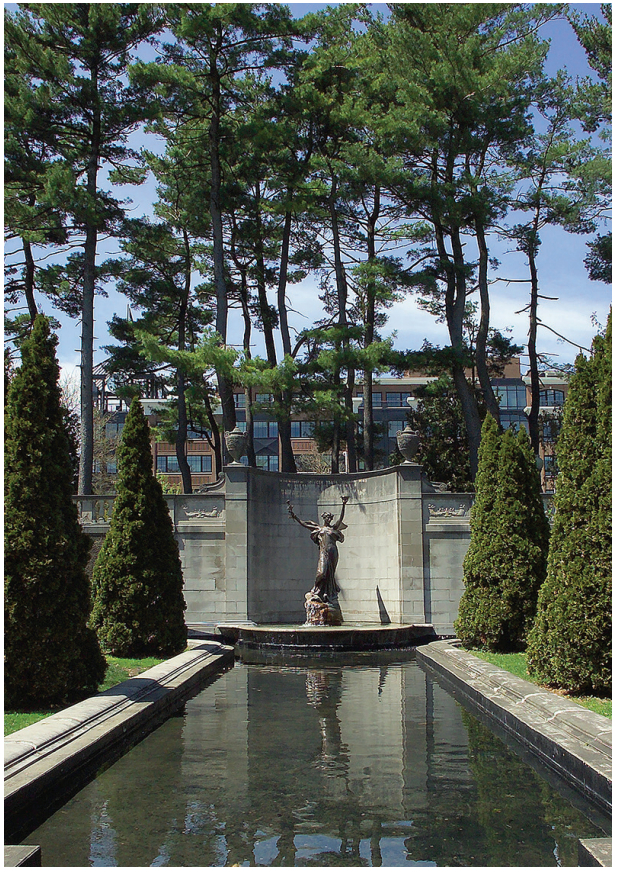
The Saratoga County Capital Resource Corporation

Enhancing our future...and yours.

Our Mission

The Saratoga County Capital Resource Corporation (SCCRC) is a local development corporation that promotes the community and the creation of jobs in the non-profit and for profit sectors by developing and providing programs for not for profit organizations, manufacturing and industrial businesses and other entities to access low interest rate tax-exempt and non-tax-exempt financing. SCCRC also has the ability to undertake projects and activities for the purposes of reducing unemployment, maintaining and bettering job opportunities and attracting new industry and business to Saratoga County. We are here to serve the interests of our residents by encouraging the retention of existing businesses and organizations, expanding opportunities for economic growth and creating employment opportunities.



Where We Work

The activities of the SCCRC cover all of the towns, cities and villages within the borders of Saratoga County. We may be able to assist existing not for profit or for profit private sector organizations already located within the County, or organizations outside the county that want to move to Saratoga County or branch out to one of the communities within our borders.

Who We Are

The SCCRC was created by the Saratoga County Board of Supervisors and certified by the New York State Department of State in 2012. It is governed by a seven member volunteer board of directors of Saratoga County residents and officials, all of whom are appointed by the Saratoga County Board of Supervisors. The professional staff is led by the organization's Chief Executive Officer, with support from legal counsel and the Chief Financial Officer. Our experienced staff can expedite applications for financing or other assistance quickly and affordably.
