

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

DATE: July 19, 2023

AMERICA'S TURNING POINT REVOLUTION ON THE HUDSON EVENT LOCATION CHANGE

America's Turning Point's Revolution on the Hudson event on July 25th has been relocated to Brown's Beach due to flooding at the original location.

WHO: America's Turning Point, Saratoga County, Town of Stillwater, Speaker David Pitlyk

WHAT: America's Turning Point's summer speaker series, Revolution on the Hudson

WHEN: July 25 at 6PM. Speaker begin at 7PM

WHERE: Brown's Beach 511 NY -9P in Stillwater

NOTES:

There will be cannon firing as part of this demonstration. Speaker: David Pitlyk will present "Revisiting the Battle of Bennington"

Please bring your own chairs to the events. Admission is free, and donations are appreciated to support future events.

The event features 18th-century living historians who will answer questions and provide demonstrations before the speaker program begins at 7pm. Children will have the opportunity to try out 18th century toys and games, along with replica colonial clothing.

These events will take place outdoors. In case of inclement weather, the program will be cancelled.

For more information, visit saratoga250.com or contact the Saratoga County 250th Commission at saratoga250th@gmail.com or by phone at 518-884-4749.

The event is open to the public and media.

###

