THE WRITTEN TEST will be designed to evaluate knowledge, skills and /or abilities in the following areas:

Ensuring effective inter/intra agency communications. These questions test for understanding of techniques for interacting effectively with individuals and agencies, to educate and inform them about topics of concern, to clarify agency programs or policies, to negotiate conflicts or resolve complaints, and to represent one's agency or program in a manner in keeping with good public relations practices. Questions may also cover interacting with the staff of one's own agency and/or that of other agencies in cooperative efforts of public outreach or service.

Preparing written material. These questions test for the ability to present information clearly and accurately, and to organize paragraphs logically and comprehensibly. For some questions, you will be given information in two or three sentences followed by four restatements of the information. You must then choose the best version. For other questions, you will be given paragraphs with their sentences out of order. You must then choose, from four suggestions, the best order for the sentences.

Business principles. These questions test for basic knowledge of business and how it operates, basics of project financing, common development criteria for industrial sites, and business data sources.

Economic development practice and programs. These questions test for the principles and practices of being an economic developer. Questions may cover such areas as handling the requests and meeting the needs of companies and prospects; knowledge of business information sources and government programs related to economic development; and certain business sales and marketing techniques.

Administrative techniques and practices. These questions test for a knowledge of management techniques and practices used in directing or assisting in directing a program component or an organizational segment. Questions cover such areas as interpreting policies, making decisions based on the context of the position in the organization, coordinating programs or projects, communicating with employees or the public, planning employee training, and researching and evaluating areas of concern.

Test guide. The New York State Department of Civil Service has NOT prepared a test guide for this examination. However, candidates may find information in the publication 'General Guide to Written Tests' helpful in preparing for this test. This publication is available on line at: <https://www.cs.ny.gov/testing/testguides.cfm>.
